The Lucton Classroom Code of Conduct

The Lucton Classroom Behaviour Code describes how all staff should expect pupils to behave in the classroom. Pupils:

- Must work to the best of their ability
- Must record their prep in their Student Planner
- Display good manners at all times, remembering to say please and thank you. They should stand up when an adult (teacher or visitor) enters the classroom
- Must show respect for their teacher and other pupils at all times – they must never make disparaging remarks about another pupil's comments or work
- Should always ask for extra help if there is any aspect of the work that they do not understand
- Work should be neat and tidy at all times. Graffiti in books is not allowed
- Must not call out in class. If they are answering questions or have a question to ask, they must raise their arm and wait for their teacher to invite them to speak
- Must not be late for lessons
- Must complete their prep on time
- Must always ensure that they have the necessary books and equipment for each lesson
